Annotations to Completed Sample Form 106

Summary of Your Assets and Liabilities and Certain Statistical Information

Accompanying the schedules is a form (Official Form 106Sum) that summarizes the debtor's debts, property, income, and expenses. The form reports the totals of certain information listed on other forms, and is used for statistical reports that the courts are required by law to prepare and make public. The form is self-explanatory. Bankruptcy software programs will typically insert the applicable figures from the schedules and forms automatically once they are completed. Lines 8 and 9 in part 4 of the form are to be filled out only if the debtor has primarily consumer debts. This information is collected for statistical purposes only, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 159. The completed schedule contains a note referring to the following annotations:

1. Each schedule requires the debtor's name and case number. The case number will not be available if the schedules are filed at the same time as the petition and can be left blank. BACK
2. If after the initial filing the debtor files any amendments to the schedules or forms that are used to generate the summary, the debtor must fill out a new Form 106Sum and check the box at the top of the form indicating that is an amended filing. BACK
3. The debtor's response on line 7 of Part 7 should be consistent with the response provided in line 16 on the petition, Official Form 101. BACK
