Schedule H: Your Codebtors

12/15

Codebtors are people or entities who are also liable for any debts you may have. Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, copy the Additional Page, fill it out, and number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Additional Page to this page. On the top of any Additional Pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

1. Do you have any codebtors? (If you are filing a joint case, do not list either spouse as a codebtor.)

Annotations to Completed Sample Form 106

Schedule H

Schedule H is a list of codebtors, other than a spouse in a joint case, who are obligated on any of the debtor's debts. For a general discussion of Schedule H, see § 7.3.7.5, supra. The completed schedule contains a note referring to the following annotations:

65. The debtor's codebtors, other than a spouse in a joint case, should be listed on Schedule H. A former spouse who is jointly responsible with the debtor under state law for providing necessities such as food and medical care to dependents should be listed here as a codebtor. A guarantor on a debt owed by the debtor, such as a private mortgage insurance company, should also be listed here as a codebtor. Debtors who have no codebtors should check the applicable box. 66. If the debtor has lived in a community property state or territory within the previous eight years, the debtor must list the state and provide the name and address for any spouse, former spouse, or legal equivalent that the debtor lived with during that time. BACK
67. In the sample case Ms. Reyes' former husband is listed as a codebtor on her tax debt. For each codebtor obligation, she has also indicated on column 2 the creditor to whom the debt is owed, by checking the box for each applicable schedule and providing the line number on which the debt is listed. 68. Ms. Reyes' sister is listed as a codebtor on her car loan and home rental. Although there may be resistance to listing family members, there is no ground for not doing so. Some debtors may take comfort in chapter 13 cases in the availability of a limited codebtor stay. 11 U.S.C. § 1301. See § 9.4.4, supra. BACK
