Annotations to Completed Sample Form 2030

1. In every case a disclosure of fees paid to the debtor's attorney must be filed. 11 U.S.C. § 329; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2016(b). Director's Form B2030, though not an Official Form, has been promulgated by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts to fulfill this requirement. The purpose of this form is to allow the court and the United States trustee, who also must receive a copy, to monitor fees and to make sure they are reasonable. The attorney must disclose the amount of any compensation paid within one year before the filing of the petition, or agreed to be paid, for services in contemplation of or in connection with the bankruptcy case. Because Ms. Reyes' attorney is handling the case pro bono, she has listed "$0.00" in the line items describing the total amount of compensation, the amount paid before filing the statement, and the balance due. 2. The the attorney has been paid by someone other than the debtor, such as a friend or family member of the debtor, the box "Other" should be checked and the attorney should identify the source of the compensation. BACK
3. The attorney must also state on the form if they have agreed to share the disclosed compensation with persons other than members or associates of the attorney's law firm. See § 16.3.2, supra. BACK
4. Attorneys charging fees must provide some specificity on lines 4 and 5 about the services provided, and any services the attorney has excluded based on the retainer with the debtor. The degree of specificity required varies to some extent based on local rules and practice. See § 16.3, supra. BACK
