Official Form 106G

Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, copy the additional page, fill it out, number the entries, and attach it to this page. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

1. Do you have any executory contracts or unexpired leases?

- ☐ No. Check this box and file this form with the court with your other schedules. You have nothing else to report on this form.
- ☒ Yes. Fill in all of the information below even if the contracts or leases are listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B).

2. List separately each person or company with whom you have the contract or lease. Then state what each contract or lease is for (for example, rent, vehicle lease, cell phone). See the instructions for this form in the instruction booklet for more examples of executory contracts and unexpired leases.

Schedule G

48. The debtor must list on Schedule G any unexpired leases and executory contracts. The debtor's interest in the contract or lease may also be listed on Schedule A/B. An executory contract is broadly defined as one for which significant aspects of performance remain due by the parties. An unexpired lease is one that has not yet terminated according to its terms. If the debtor has no unexpired leases or executory contracts, the debtor should check the applicable box. For cases that include unexpired leases or other executory contracts, the listing must include a description of the contract or lease as provided here. Many debtors will have cell phone, internet, and cable contracts that may be listed. The debtor may be party to an automobile lease, an ongoing employment contract, or a pending sale agreement for goods or real estate. These should be listed as well. All entities listed on Schedule G must be included in the list of creditors filed at the outset of the case to ensure that they receive notice. BACK
49. The debtors should specify in their chapter 13 plan whether any of the leases or executory contracts listed on Schedule G will be assumed or rejected. See 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b)(7); § 12.8.3, supra. In the sample case, the Lewises intend to assume the auto lease and cell phone contract. BACK
